R.E. Turner

Owner

As Vice Chairman of Time Warner, Inc., a position he assumed on October 10, 1996, R.E. (Ted) Turner III oversees the assets of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., including the Atlanta Braves and Atlanta Hawks.

Also falling under the TBS umbrella are the Cable News Network (CNN), Turner Network Television (TNT), TBS SuperStation, Headline News, CNN International, CNN/SI, Turner Classic Movies (TCM), Cartoon Network, Cartoon Network in Europe, Cartoon Network Latin America, CNN Airport Network, CNNfn, TNT Latin America, TNT in Europe and TNT and Cartoon Network in Asia Pacific.

Turner also oversees Home Box Office, Inc. (HBO), Cinemax, Warner Brothers International Networks, Castle Rock Entertainment, New Line Cinema and Time Warner's interest in Comedy Central and E! Entertainment.

Turner became the owner of the Braves on January 14, 1976, when the National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Group, now Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Turner's ownership of the Braves and the Hawks has helped bring stability to the Atlanta sports scene. He has turned over direct leadership of both teams to experts, including Stan Kasten, who serves as President of both clubs, and Braves General Manager John Schuerholz.

Foreseeing the potential of satellite and cable technology more than 20 years ago, Turner forged a new frontier in the television industry. He transformed a small UHF television station in Atlanta into the world's first "superstation" by beaming the station's signal via satellite to cable systems across the U.S., starting in December of 1976. Because of their national exposure on TBS, the Braves have fans in all 50 states.

Turner's enthusiasm for sports and improved international relations led him to create the Goodwill Games, an international, multi-sport event held in Moscow in 1986, Seattle in 1990 and St. Petersburg, Russia in 1994. The 1998 Games are scheduled to be held in the New York City metropolitan area. The 1986 Moscow games represented the first time that U.S. and Soviet athletes had come together in a major, international competition since the 1976 Montreal Olympics.

Turner revolutionized the television news industry in 1980, when he started CNN, the first 24-hour all news television station. In addition to providing in-depth live coverage and analysis of breaking events and comprehensive newscasts, CNN also offers a full range of programs covering the latest in business, weather, sports, entertainment, health and science news. HEADLINE NEWS was launched in 1982 to complement CNN's in-depth news coverage with concise, 30-minute newscasts updated 24 hours a day. Both CNN and Headline News received numerous accolades for their combined coverage of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm.

Another of Turner's contributions to the cable industry was the launch of TNT in 1988. With a variety of high-quality, original programming, TNT is seen in more than 61 million homes. The service is home to many of Hollywood's greatest movies and high-profile sporting events, including the National Basketball Association, the National Football League and the 1992 and 1994 Winter Olympics.

Turner's involvement in sports programming took another step forward with the launch of SportSouth in August of 1990. This southeastern regional network offers Atlanta Braves baseball and Atlanta Hawks and Charlotte Hornets basketball, college football, basketball and baseball, auto racing, volleyball, golf, tennis and other major sporting events. Now FOX Sports South, the network is available in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina and Kentucky.

Ted Turner, Continued

Turner was born in Cincinnati on November 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He also is known as a superior yachtsman, having won national and world sailing titles, including a successful defense of the 1977 America's Cup, the 1979 Fastnet Trophy and four Yachtsman of the Year awards. He is a 1996 inductee of the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame.

Turner is an active environmentalist and has received numerous civic and industry honors, including being named Time Magazine's 1991 Man of the Year and receiving the 1992 Governor's Award from the National Academy of Arts and Sciences. Turner's a board member of the National Cable Television Association, the Martin Luther King Center for Nonviolent Social Change and the Greater Yellowstone Coalition. He is married to community activist, businesswoman and former actress Jane Fonda.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board

Bill Bartholomay, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Braves since their move to Atlanta in 1966, has witnessed his team win eight Division championships, four National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another N.L. West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and an N.L. East title in 1997.

Bartholomay, involved with the team as a director or owner for 35 years, led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in 1962 and moved the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is a member of MLB's Ownership and Restructuring committees and the Realignment Committee formed in January of 1997. He still serves as an ad hoc member of the Commissioner's Executive Council, having completed a four-year active term in 1994, is a trustee of the MLB Players benefit plan, is a past chairman of the Commissioner Search Committee and a past member of the National League Executive Committee and the committee which recommended Bill White as N.L. president in the spring of 1989.

In January of 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is President of Near North National Group; Vice Chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and a Director of WMS Industries, Inc. He also serves as Chairman of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners, Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and as a director or trustee of many other civic and business organizations throughout the country.

Stan Kasten

President

Stan Kasten, 46, probably has more top level sports administration experience than anyone else that age in the country. In his 12th season as President of the Atlanta Braves and TBS Vice President for Sports Teams, he has become one of the most highly-regarded executives in professional sports.

Under Kasten's leadership, the Braves have evolved into one of baseball's most successful franchises. In 1997, Atlanta became the first major league team to win six consecutive division titles in complete seasons. Since 1991, the Braves have won more games than any team in baseball, four N.L. pennants and one World Championship and have twice set franchise attendance records.

Both Major League Baseball and the National Basketball Association have relied on Kasten's expertise in labor-management relations. As a member of MLB's owners negotiating committee, Kasten played a key role in formulating and articulating various management proposals and positions. Serving as General Manager of the Atlanta Hawks from 1979 until 1990 and that team's President from 1986 until the present, Kasten was involved in developing the NBA's agreement between its players and management.

Kasten's association with Braves and Hawks owner Ted Turner goes back 22 years. They met at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of major league baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at age 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named Hawks President in April 1986 and Braves President in November of that same year.

As the Hawks' President, Kasten already had established himself as one of the top team officials in the NBA. He is the only person to earn league Executive of the Year honors in consecutive seasons (1986 and 1987) in a vote by his peers.

In baseball, Kasten has served as chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee and is currently on the Expansion Committee. In basketball, he has served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee and currently is a member of the Hawks Board of Directors, the NBA Board of Governors and the NBA Labor Committee. He is a former trustee of the Basketball Hall of Fame.

He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association.

Born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, NJ, Kasten attended Rutgers University before transferring to New York University (NYU) where he graduated in 1973 with a degree in psychology, earned magna cum laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School in 1976, playing in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years. He still competes in an over-40 baseball league in Atlanta.

Stan and his wife, Helen, live in Sandy Springs with their four children, Alara, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Senior Vice President & Assistant to the President

Appointed Senior Vice President and Assistant to the President in December of 1989, Hank Aaron works with President Stan Kasten in many phases of the Braves' operations and represents the Braves in community relations activities.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, as Vice President and Director of Player Development. He oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83. Tom Glavine, Jeff Blauser, Mark Lemke, David Justice, and Ron Gant, factors in the team's success in the 1990s, also began their careers under Aaron's stewardship.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Ty Cobb and Tom Seaver have received a higher percentage of the votes cast. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HR's and 30 SB's in the same season) in 1963. Hank played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of the 1974 season. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron, a vice president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP and the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci.

FRONT OFFICE

Executive Vice President & General Manager

The Atlanta Braves have the best record in major league baseball (651-417, .610) and have won an unprecedented six straight divisional titles in the past seven years. Between 1991 and 1996, they won four National League pennants, one World Series, several Organization of the Year awards and twice surpassed the three million mark in attendance, including a franchise record 3,884,720 in 1993.

The team's successes are the result of an organizational commitment to excellence and a lot of hard work on the part of a lot of people. But, the Braves recognized the contributions of one individual and ensured that he would remain an integral part of their management team when, in August of 1994, they extended the contract of John Schuerholz, Executive Vice President and General Manager, through 1999.

Since his arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action and last year was no exception. He signed free agents Andres Galarraga and Walt Weiss to three-year contracts in November. In March, he acquired Kenny Lofton and Alan Embree from the Cleveland Indians and Michael Tucker and Keith Lockhart from the Kansas City Royals. Each contributed to the Braves' success in 1997. Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux were signed to new long-term contracts during the season, while John Smoltz and Denny Neagle were re-signed after 1996. When injuries weakened the Braves' pitching staff during 1996, Neagle was acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates for Jason Schmidt and minor leaguers Ron Wright and Corey Pointer. Terry Pendleton and Luis Polonia were added to the roster a second time and Andruw Jones earned his way from Class A ball to the major leagues.

During the 1995 season, Mike Devereaux, Polonia and Alejandro Pena became Braves. Marquis Grissom joined Atlanta in April of that season. The Braves traded three minor leaguers to the San Diego Padres for Fred McGriff in July of 1993. Nine games out of first place prior to McGriff's first game on July 20, the Braves went 51-17 the rest of the season en route to a franchise-best 104-58 record.

During the 1992-1993 off-season, Maddux, who would again win the Cy Young award in 1993-95, signed with the Braves as a free agent and Smoltz and Glavine signed long-term contracts. Jeff Reardon came on board when the bullpen experienced health problems in late 1992. Pena joined the team for the first time in 1991. In the spring of that year, Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard and Otis Nixon started wearing Braves uniforms. The man behind all these moves -- John Schuerholz.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 last-to-first performance, Schuerholz earned several awards. He was named baseball's Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend magazine.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later and, as an Administrative Assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. In 1970 he was named Assistant Farm Director and in 1975 became Farm Director. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President - Player Personnel in 1979. In October of 1981, at the age of 41, the Royals named him Executive Vice President and General Manager.

During Schuerholz's tenure with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship, two American League Pennants (1980 and 1985) and six divisional crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz the Major League Executive of the Year for 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be General Manager of World Championship teams in both the National and American leagues. Since he was named General Manager of the Royals after the 1981 season, his teams have more wins (1,405) than those of any other active general manager in the major leagues. Furthermore, during Schuerholz's career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, he has been associated with three world champions (1966, 1985, 1995), seven pennant winners and 12 divisional crowns.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) State University, where he was an all-conference choice in baseball and soccer and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson State's Hall of Fame in 1973.

Schuerholz is active in YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth, Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for terminally ill children, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan.

Winningest Team in Major League Baseball Since 1991

Manager

HT: 6' 0"      WT: 185
BORN: 5/21/41 in Tulsa, OK
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

Atlanta Braves manager Bobby Cox is level-headed in his approach to the game. He's patient, supportive of his players and quick to credit his coaches. He doesn't panic.

His philosophy must be working. Under Cox, the Braves have won more games (651) the past seven years than any team in the major leagues. In 1997, the Braves became the first major league team to win its division in six consecutive completed seasons.

Those titles have led to four pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996) and one World Championship (in 1995).

Cox, the Braves' winningest modern era manager with 957 victories, finished the 1997 regular season with 1,312 major league wins, including 355 with Toronto. He is the second winningest active manager behind the St. Louis Cardinals' Tony LaRussa, who has won 1,481 games.

The Braves, appreciative of his accomplishments even before the conclusion of 1996, when the team won its fourth pennant of the 1990s, extended his contract in June of that season two years through 1999. The club has an option for 2000.

In 1993, the Braves won a franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight divisional titles. The Sporting News named Cox N.L. Manager of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst to first, captured the first of two consecutive National League pennants and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in that season, lifting an habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a 1985 World Series berth.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named The Sporting News Major League Manager of the Year and accorded a similar honor by the Baseball Writers of America.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which produced many of the team's 1990s' standouts. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife, Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta.

Jim Beauchamp #37

Dugout Coach

HT: 6' 2"

WT: 215

BORN: 8/21/39 in Vinita, OK

RESIDES: Tyrone, GA

Jim Beauchamp, who paid his dues as a minor league manager for 16 years, enters his eighth season beside manager Bobby Cox in the Braves dugout in 1998. Beauchamp, who played for the Atlanta Crackers and Braves in the 1960s, managed in the Braves' farm system from 1985 through 1990 before joining the Atlanta coaching staff in 1991.

His minor league managerial career began at Columbus (GA) in 1975, when he led his club to a second-place tie in the AA Southern League. Beauchamp moved to the AAA level in 1976, and over the next three seasons guided Memphis and Charleston into International League playoffs. Charleston captured the Governor's Cup in 1977 and finished first in the regular season in 1978.

After a final year at Charleston in 1979, Beauchamp piloted Indianapolis for two years before moving on to manage Syracuse from 1982 through 1984. From 1985 through 1987 at AA Greenville, he worked with several prospects who went on to become Atlanta Braves, managing some of those same players at AAA Richmond from 1988 through 1990. He led Richmond to the IL championship in 1989.

Beauchamp began his 17-year professional playing career in 1958. His best minor league season came in 1963, when he was named the Texas League Most Valuable Player after hitting .337 with 31 homers and 105 RBI.

In 1964 Beauchamp tied for 2nd in the Pacific Coast League with 31 homers and then paced the International League when he belted 25 homers for the Richmond Braves in 1966. The Vinita, OK native, whose career was marred by injuries, wore the Major League uniforms of the Cardinals, Astros, Braves, Reds and Mets, and appeared in the 1973 World Series with New York.

Jim, his wife, Pam, and daughters Shanna and Lauren, live in Tyrone, GA. Jim has three other children, Kash, Tim and Ann Rene.

Pat Corrales #39

First Base Coach

HT: 6' 0"

WT: 205

BORN: 3/20/41 in Los Angeles, CA

RESIDES: Atlanta, GA

Pat Corrales is in his ninth season as the Braves' first base coach, and his 40th year in professional baseball. Corrales joined the Braves as an advance and special assignments scout on September 24, 1989, and joined Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over the managerial reins.

In his nine years as a Major League manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came in 1978 with the Rangers, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the N.L. East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, becoming only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

He remained with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11.5 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959). That club became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the A.L. Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach seven times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Corrales participated in clinics conducted by Major League Baseball International and NIKE in November of 1994 in Mexico.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Atlanta. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

Bobby Dews #52

Third Base Coach

HT: 6' 0"      WT: 180
BORN: 3/23/38 in Clinton, IA
RESIDES: Albany, GA

Bobby Dews, a member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach December 9, 1996.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81 and as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985.

Prior to rejoining the major league staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system. Chipper Jones, Ryan Klesko and Javy Lopez are a few of the current Braves who spent some of those years as Braves' minor leaguers.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. He had been a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

Dews, a native of Clinton, Iowa, graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. Bobby and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, GA. They have one daughter, Dana.

Clarence Jones #28

Hitting Coach

HT: 6' 3"

WT: 220

BORN: 11/7/41 in Zanesville, OH

RESIDES: Greensboro, GA

Clarence Jones, a coach in the Braves organization since 1984, has been in Atlanta since May of 1988, when he was named batting instructor. He also served as first base coach from 1989 to June of 1990, when Bobby Cox asked him to return to working with Braves hitters exclusively.

During the Braves success of the past seven years, virtually everyone has contributed offensively. Five players hit at least 20 homers and five had at least 70 RBI in 1997. In 1996, Marquis Grissom achieved the 200-hit mark (207) for the first time in his career, Fred McGriff recorded a career-best 107 RBI, and Chipper Jones put up MVP-type numbers (.309-30-110). In 1995 Jones made a bid for N.L. Rookie of the Year honors with 23 home runs and 86 RBI. In 1994, McGriff became the ninth player in major league history to hit at least 30 homers in seven or more consecutive seasons and Mark Lemke continued his offensive improvement. David Justice, Ron Gant and Jeff Blauser enjoyed productive seasons in 1993. In 1992, Terry Pendleton had his second straight great season, Deion Sanders hit .304 and Blauser closed with a rush.

In 1991, Gant produced his second straight 30-30 season, Pendleton hit a career-high .319 and won the National League MVP award and Justice had 87 RBI in 109 games. Justice was named the N.L.'s Rookie-of-the-Year and Gant the league's comeback Player-of-the-Year in 1990.

The constant in all this - Jones. He joined the Braves as a minor league instructor in 1984, coached at A Sumter in 1987 and started 1988 as a minor league instructor again.

Signed by the Phillies in 1959, Jones earned minor-league honors as the Northwest League's Player-of-the-Year in 1964, hitting .344 with 33 homers and a league-leading 120 RBI while playing for Salem. After spending parts of two seasons with the Cubs, he went to play in Japan from 1970-1977, becoming in 1974 the first American player to capture the Japanese home run title. Jones wound up batting .311 with 23 homers that year.

Clarence and his wife, Daphne, reside in Greensboro, GA.

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979, but nothing has given him more satisfaction than the past seven seasons.

The Braves pitching staff, renowned for its durability, finished first in the major leagues with a 3.18 ERA in 1997 and has either led or been second in the majors in ERA each year starting in 1991. In 1997, Denny Neagle went 20-5 and placed third in the National League Cy Young voting. John Smoltz won the 1996 N.L. Cy Young award. In 1995, Greg Maddux earned an unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young. Each of the four top starters accumulated at least 35 starts and 220 innings in 1993. In 1992, the Braves set a franchise record with 24 shutouts.

Mazzone was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as manager. Mazzone had reached the major league level for the first time in 1985, when, after an 18-year career as a minor league player, coach and manager, he joined Atlanta as a co-pitching coach.

After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed Class A Corpus Christi in 1976 and 1977. He managed Class A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position as a minor league pitching instructor in the Braves' organization from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach in Durham from 1983 to July 21 of 1984 before winding up that season as Greenville's manager. He was a coach at Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, and served as Richmond's pitching coach from 1988 to June of 1990.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At AA Amarillo of the Texas League in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.62 ERA, but missed qualifying for the league ERA title by four innings pitched.

Leo and his wife, Gregg, reside in Rawlings Heights, MD, in the off-season. They have three sons: Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas.

At 42, Ned Yost is the youngest member of Bobby Cox's coaching staff.

Yost, the Braves' bullpen coach, made his major league coaching debut in 1991, after having spent the previous three seasons managing Atlanta's Class A affiliate at Sumter. While there, he worked with several of the Braves' heralded prospects, including Ryan Klesko.

The Eureka, CA, native joined the Braves' organization in 1986, batting .248 in 80 games at Greenville and .294 in 8 games at Richmond. A catcher in his playing days, Yost retired after the 1987 season, closing out a 14-year career at Greenville and Richmond.

Yost was the Mets' first choice in the secondary phase of the 1974 draft and advanced to AAA Tidewater before being selected by Milwaukee in the minor league draft in December of 1977. He made his big-league debut with the Brewers in 1980 and served as a backup catcher for Milwaukee through the 1983 campaign. Yost saw action in the 1982 World Series, drawing a walk in his only plate appearance.

Traded to Texas after the 1983 season, Yost spent all of 1984 with the Rangers before being released in spring training the following year. Within a month, the Expos signed Yost as a free agent and assigned him to AAA Indianapolis. He saw his final major league action when he was recalled by the Expos in the last month of the 1985 season.

Ned and his wife, Deborah, reside in Marietta, GA. They have four children: Ned IV, Josh, Jenny and Andrew.

Mathews is the only Brave in franchise history to play for the team on the major league level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in '53 with 47 and '59 with 46. He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more, 10 times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBIs in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. The Braves' traded Mathews to Houston in 1967 where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. He managed into the 1974 season accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1.

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, Murphy was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 & 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games, leading all players in votes in 1985, won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 25, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBIs (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926).

The Braves in the World Series

1914 -- Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves", who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 -- Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves, under Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 -- Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 -- New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 -- Minnesota 4 games, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic of the first order. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice more in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first player in N.L. Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 -- Toronto 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (last three setbacks to Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's 6th-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a come-from-behind 5-4 win, sparked by a 9th-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3&4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the 9th on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8x15) with five stolen bases.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cleveland 2

The Braves affirmed their standing as baseball's team of the 1990's by capturing Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 post-season hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a post-season. Grissom hit safely in all 14 post season contests, the longest batting streak ever in one post-season. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the post-season 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for post-season hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the 1995 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston in 1914 and Milwaukee in 1957.

1996 -- New York 4 games, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight world championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two AB in game one (3x4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in game two, 4-0, allowing only 6 hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, 2 were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had 3 RBI in game 2, after getting 2 in game one, to give him 15 RBI for the post-season, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the post-season. Including the final three victories over the Cards in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a 2-run homer in the 8th inning of game three, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In game four, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but 3 Yankee runs in the frame cut Atlanta's lead in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the 8th, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a 3-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz in game five, 1-0, the only score coming on a 4th-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for 3 runs in the 3rd in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 -- New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 77 percent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves.

1982 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First-year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a Major League record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games.

1991 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games Two and Six; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game Seven in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the 9th scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win over Pittsburgh in Game 7. NLCS MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Bucs in Game 2. The Pirates captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for the Game 7 drama. With their improbable 9th-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive post-season game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 -- Philadelphia 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueling John Smoltz in Game 4, to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer, that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves in defeat with a .435 batting average.

1995 -- Atlanta 4 games, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned as the National League representative in the World Series for the third time in the last four fall classics by sweeping the Reds, the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game, 1-1, in the top of the ninth. Eventual MVP winner Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10 innings at Riverfront, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a 3-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta in Game 3, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4, with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a 3-run home run to lead the Braves. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout, avenging a sub-par regular season for him. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right-fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 -- Atlanta 4 games, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their post-season saga of the '90s by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS by crushing the Cardinals, 32-1, over the final three games. Game one saw Javy Lopez break a 2-2 tie in the 8th with a bases-loaded, 2-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 victory behind John Smoltz (8.0 IP, 5 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 6 K). Chipper Jones led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his 4th save in 4 appearances in the '96 post-season. The momentum in the series shifted in game two when Gary Gaetti's 7th-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into a comfortable 8-3 victory. In game three Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with 2 outs and no one on in the St. Louis 7th, but before the 3rd out the Redbirds fought back to tie the score and claim the lead for good in the 8th on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in game five, the Braves struck for five 1st-inning runs en route to a 14-0 rout, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez led the Braves' attack by going 4 x 5 with 2 doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added 4 hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. Game six was vintage Maddux as the four-time Cy Young winner blanked the Cardinals through 7.0 innings en route to a 3-1 win. Maddux (7.2 IP, 6 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 0 BB, 7 K) teamed with Wohlers (2nd save of LCS) to hold the Cards in check; Wohlers' 8th-inning wild pitch accounted for the only run allowed by the Braves over the last three games. In game seven the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored 6 in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's 3-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 finale broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent the Braves to their fourth World Series out of the last five played. The Braves became the first NL club to win 4 pennants in 5 completed seasons since the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1952-53-55-56. Lopez was named series MVP after batting .542 (13 x 24) with 5 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI.

1997 -- Florida 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record 6th straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only 1 unearned run all season, took the loss in game one when the Marlins reached him for 5 runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to 3 hits in a 7-1 victory in game two, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in game three, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a 3-run double off John Smoltz in the 6th inning. Game four saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on 4 hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series at 2 games apiece. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only 5 hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in game five, allowing only 3 hits and notching a NLCS record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in game 6, sparked by a 4-run 1st inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves in defeat by hitting .500 (8 x 16) in 5 games.

The Braves in the Division Series

1995 -- Atlanta 3 games, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Colorado's Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won, 5-4. Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing, 4-3, entering the ninth inning. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two home runs and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Staff ace Greg Maddux, Grissom, and Fred McGriff teamed to lead the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for post-season hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 -- Atlanta 3 games, Los Angeles 0

Although the Braves hit only .180 and were held to 10 runs, Atlanta nonetheless swept the Dodgers in 3 games, as the staff allowed only 3 ER in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game one in LA saw the Braves continue their '90s tradition of one-run games in the post-season as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz (9.0 IP, 4 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) received the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In game two the Braves trailed 2-1 before Fred McGriff's HR leading off the seventh inning tied the game and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only 2 unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his 2nd save in 2 games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. The Braves completed a three-game sweep as Tom Glavine (6.2 IP, 1 ER) and Chipper Jones (2-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a 2-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a 4-run 4th inning to give the Braves a 5-0 lead, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo. The victory sent the Braves to their fifth straight NLCS.

1997-- Atlanta 3 games, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, this time taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, while outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game one saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux (9.0 IP, 7 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 6 K) in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the 2nd inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with 3 runs in the 5th and 5 more in the 6th. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks from Astros pitching, including 8 issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in game 3 at Houston as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating effort (9.0 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 11 K), taking a 4-1 decision. For the series, Braves starters Maddux-Glavine-Smoltz combined for a 1.87 ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP). The Braves' offense, despite being held to a .217 BA, posted 19 runs with their 20 hits.

Braves History

1901 - In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played the outfield and first base.

1902- Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.

1912- The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.

1914- The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.

1928- Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.

1935- Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.

1936- The Braves' name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club readopted the nickname of the Braves.

1938- Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.

1947- Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.

1948- This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league-high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1950- Centerfielder Sam Jethroe won the Rookie- of-the-Year award.

1952- Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit 3 home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.

1953- The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47, and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.

1954- Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.

1956- Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.

1957- The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers, and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.

1958- In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

1959- It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.

1960- Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21, but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.

1961- Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.

1964-The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more: Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).

1965-The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.

1966-The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.

1967-Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to 7th in the league standings.

1968-In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.

1969-The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.

1970-Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.

1971-Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

1972-Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by future Hall of Fame third baseman Eddie Mathews. The team finished fourth. The Braves also hosted the All-Star Game in Atlanta for the first time.

1973-The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson hit 42 of his as a second baseman, tying Rogers Hornsby for the Major League record for most homers in a season by a second baseman. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.

1974-Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.

1975-The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.

1976-The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.

1977-Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at the Pirates' Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him upstairs.

1978-Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.

1979-Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games. Tragically, Director of Player Personnel Bill Lucas, who functioned as the Braves' general manager, died from a brain hemorrhage at age 43 on May 5th.

1980-Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and he responded with 33 homers, 89 RBI.

1981-A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games.

1982-Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.

Braves Historical Highlights, Continued

1983-Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.

1984-Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.

1985-Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.

1986-Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.

1987-Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI and career-high 44 homers.

1988-Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team-high 29 stolen bases.

1989-The Braves finished at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Lonnie Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR (21) and RBI (79). His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.

1990-The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice worked up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades.

1991-The Braves made history by becoming the first team ever to reach the World Series just one season after having baseball's worst record. Although the team stumbled into the All-Star break 9.5 games behind the first-place Dodgers, they were able to slice seven games off the lead in the first 12 days after the break. What followed was a thrilling stretch drive during which the Braves and Dodgers were never separated by more than 2.5 games after August 10. Among many clutch performances were the N.L.'s first-ever combined no-hitter by Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 vs. San Diego and David Justice's game-winning, two-run homer off Rob Dibble on October 1, capping a comeback from a 6-0, first-inning deficit. The Braves finally clinched the division title on October 5, after an eight-game winning streak, the first six coming on the road, to set Atlanta records of 94 wins (including a 55-28 mark in the second half) and 2,140,217 in attendance.

Steve Avery was the MVP of the NLCS after tossing a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to lead the Braves to a seven-game triumph. Mark Lemke then turned the World Series into a personal showcase by hitting .417 and helping push the Twins all the way to Game 7, a heartbreaking, 1-0 loss in 10 innings.

Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award; Terry Pendleton won the batting title and was named N.L. MVP; Bobby Cox became the BBWAA and AP N.L. Manager-of-the-Year; Schuerholz earned UPI N.L. Executive-of-the-Year honors; and BASEBALL AMERICA honored Atlanta by naming it the Organization-of-the-Year.

1992-Francisco Cabrera's 9th-inning, two-out, two-run, pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's photo finish slide at home plate gave Atlanta a stunning 3-2 triumph over the Pirates and sent the Braves to their second consecutive World Series. The Braves became the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, while setting a new franchise record with a major league-leading 98 victories. On May 27, the Braves resided in last place with a 20-27 mark, 7.0 games behind front-running San Francisco. The team then proceeded to rip off 21 wins in 24 games en route to finishing the season with an amazing 78-37 (.678) run over the duration of the campaign. Included in this blitz was a 13-game winning streak from July 8-25, which tied the franchise record set in 1982. The Braves finally moved into first place July 22, then were tied for the top spot on two occasions before gaining the lead for good on August 2.

The Braves led the league in ERA (3.14) for the first time since 1958. For the second straight year, Tom Glavine won 20 games, including a 13-game winning streak, which established a modern day Braves' record. John Smoltz won a career-high 15 games, and became the first Braves' hurler to lead the NL in strikeouts (215) since Phil Niekro in 1977. Pendleton produced another outstanding season, collecting a career-high 105 RBI while hitting .311. His 39 doubles set an Atlanta record and his 199 hits were tied for first in the loop.

Atlanta then met Toronto in the first International World Series, with the Blue Jays prevailing in six games. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 with five stolen bases. Nonetheless, the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58.

1993-After one of the most pulsating stretch runs in baseball history, the Braves became the first team to win the N.L. West for three consecutive years when they captured the division over the Giants on the season's final day. The Braves set a franchise record with 104 victories, leading the majors in wins for the second straight season. Atlanta played 54-19 ball (.740) after the All-Star break, the third-best second half in major league history and overcame a 10-game deficit as of July 22. The surge coincided with the July acquisition of Fred McGriff from San Diego, with the Braves going 51-17 (.750) after McGriff joined the lineup. McGriff's first game as a Brave on July 20 will always be remembered in Atlanta as the night of the pre-game press box fire at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium; McGriff's homer in the contest ignited the Braves from a 5-0 deficit to an 8-5 win over the Cardinals.

McGriff (37, 101) joined David Justice (40, 120) and Ron Gant (36, 117) to give the Braves the first trio of 100+ RBI men in the N.L. since the Braves' 1970 lineup of Aaron, Cepeda and Carly. The Braves led the league in homers (168) and ERA (3.14) for the second straight season, the first team to do so in consecutive years since the 1977-78 Dodgers. Atlanta's "Fab Four" starting rotation lived up to expectations, with Greg Maddux winning his second consecutive Cy Young Award after posting a 20-10 mark with a 2.36 ERA. Tom Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA) became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20+ games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins hurled six consecutive 20+ win seasons from 1967-72. Steve Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) matched his career-high in victories, and John Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time this century. Jeff Blauser (.305) became the first Brave shortstop to hit over .300 since Alvin Dark in 1948 and set a franchise mark for runs scored (110) by a shortstop. Terry Pendleton recovered from a slow start to knock in 84 runs, while Mike Stanton (27 saves), Rookie-of-the-Year runner-up Greg McMichael (2-3, 2.06 ERA, 19 saves) and Steve Bedrosian (1.63 ERA) led the relief corps. The team drew a franchise-record 3,884,720.

1994- The Braves opened the campaign in the newly aligned National League attempting to capture their fourth straight division crown in their new home, the N.L. East. The Braves began the season in record fashion, winning their first seven games, all on the road. It was the second best start in Atlanta history and a modern N.L. record for consecutive wins on a season-opening road trip. Kent Mercker no-hit the Dodgers, 6-0, April 8 in Los Angeles. The Braves equalled their Atlanta-best 13-1 start, which included tying a team record 10 straight road wins. The Braves set an Atlanta record for runs scored in their 19-5 victory at Chicago April 15. In that game Atlanta hit back-to-back-to-back homers and duplicated the accomplishment three days later to become the first team in major league history to achieve the feat twice within that short a time frame. Bobby Cox became the 41st manager in major league history to win at least 1,000 games with a 6-5 victory June 17 vs. Cincinnati. Fred McGriff, David Justice and Greg Maddux represented Atlanta in the All-Star game in Pittsburgh. Maddux started for the National League, and McGriff captured the MVP award after he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning to tie the game at 7-7. (The NL won in 10 innings, 8-7.) McGriff hit his 30th homer August 5 at Cincinnati to become the ninth player in major league history to hit at least 30 home runs in seven or more straight seasons. He led the team in homers (34), batting average (.318), RBI (94), runs scored (81) and 2B (25).

Maddux also reached the record books by becoming the first player in major league history to win three straight Cy Young Awards. Maddux finished 16-6, tied for the lead league in wins, and led the league in ERA (1.56), complete games (10), innings pitched (202.0) and opponents batting average against (.207). For the third consecutive season, the Braves led the N.L. in homers with 137. They also finished second in the league with a 3.57 ERA.

The Braves were second in the N.L. East, 6.0 games behind Montreal, when the players went on strike after the games of August 11, cancelling the playoffs and World Series for the first time since 1904.

1995- The Braves validated their label as the "Team of the '90's" by winning their first World Series in 38 years. The world championship was the first for the city of Atlanta in a major professional sport, while the Braves also entered the record books as the first franchise to win the World Series in three different cities. Atlanta overcame a 23-20 start (3rd place, 5.0 GB) to post a 67-34 (.663) mark from June 14 through the remainder of the regular season, running away with the N.L. East title by 21.0 games. By winning the division, the Braves became the first N.L. team to finish first in four consecutive completed seasons since the 1921-24 New York Giants.

Atlanta's pitching lived up to expectations, leading the majors with a 3.44 ERA; the Braves' staff became the first to lead the majors in ERA for three straight completed seasons since the Baltimore Orioles topped the majors from 1969 through 1972. Greg Maddux claimed his unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young Award, going 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA, becoming the first starting pitcher since Walter Johnson in 1918-19 to record an ERA of less than 1.70 in two consecutive seasons. He ended the season with a major league record 18-game winning streak on the road (including an 0.99 ERA) dating back to July, '94. Mark Wohlers emerged as the dominant closer the Braves had sought throughout the '90's, saving 25 games, including 21 straight chances between May 15 and September 3. Fred McGriff (27), David Justice (24), Ryan Klesko (23) and Rookie of the Year runnerup Chipper Jones (23) became the first Braves foursome to hit over 20 homers in a season since 1973, and Javy Lopez matched Joe Torre's 1966 record for the best average by an Atlanta catcher with a .315 mark.

Last at-bat wins were the trademark of the '95 Braves, with Atlanta winning an N.L.-best 25 games in this fashion, including 18 after July 3. The Braves led the majors with 31 one-run victories, and went on to notch another seven victories in the post-season by one run and/or in their last at-bat.

Atlanta beat the Rockies three games to one in the Division Series, and routed the Reds in the first-ever four-game sweep of an NLCS, before winning the world title with a six-game triumph over the Indians, climaxed by Series MVP Tom Glavine's one-hitter over eight innings and David Justice's decisive sixth-inning homer in the 1-0 finale.

1996- The Braves made their fourth trip to the World Series out of the last five played, but were unable to defend their world title as the Yankees took the championship in six games. In their final season at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, the Braves took over first place for good on May 19, en route to winning the NL East by 8.0 games. The division crown was Atlanta's fifth straight, marking the first time a National League team has registered five straight first-place finishes. Braves bowed out of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium by setting a franchise mark with 56 home wins, topping the old record of 51, set three times previously. Atlanta's .270 team BA was its best since hitting .272 in 1983, while the club's 197 homers were third-most in Atlanta history, trailing only the teams of 1966 (207) and 1973 (206). The pitching staff set a major league record by fanning 1,245 batters, breaking the Astros' major league mark of 1,221 set in 1969; the staff also allowed the fewest walks in the majors, issuing only 451 free passes. By going 12-15 in September, team ended a stretch of playing .500+ ball for 21 straight months since April, 1993.

John Smoltz continued the Braves' Cy Young reign, as the righthander fashioned a breakthrough season, going 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA. He set modern day franchise records with his 276 strikeouts and a 14-game winning streak, and established an Atlanta mark with his 24 victories. Smoltz lost his opening start, then went 14-0 with a 1.83 ERA over his next 15 outings. Greg Maddux didn't win a fifth straight Cy Young Award, but went 15-11 with a 2.72 ERA, while Tom Glavine went 15-10 with a 2.98 ERA and won his 3rd Silver Slugger Award. Mark Wohlers shattered Gene Garber's 1982 franchise record of 30 saves by notching 39 of his own in 44 opportunities, and also recorded 100 strikeouts in 77.1 IP. Stellar years at the plate were enjoyed by Chipper Jones (30-110-.309), Fred McGriff (28-107-.295), Ryan Klesko (34-93-.282) and Marquis Grissom (23-74-.308). Grissom won his 4th consecutive Gold Glove Award and collected a career high 207 hits, becoming the first Brave to reach the 200 mark since Ralph Garr had 214 in 1974. Grissom set a franchise record with 671 AB, and compiled a 28-game hitting streak (49 x 127, .386) July 25-Aug. 24; it was the longest streak by a Brave since Rowland Office hit in 29 straight in 1976, and the third-longest in Atlanta history. On June 2 at Cincinnati he also became the first Brave to complete a straight steal of home since Ed Miller performed the feat in 1979. Other offensive highlights included Jeff Blauser's 7-RBI game at Philadelphia May 11, the first by a Brave since Orlando Cepeda in 1970, Jermaine Dye's homer in his first major league AB May 17 vs. the Reds (the first debut HR by a Brave since Chuck Tanner in 1955), and a 18-1 rout of the Cubs May 20, providing the Braves' largest margin of victory in a contest since Boston beat St. Louis, 20-3, August 25, 1936. The 1996 season also saw the debut of 19-year-old phenom Andruw Jones on Aug. 15, who made the jump from A-ball to the majors in under two months. At 19 years, 3 months and 23 days, he became the fourth-youngest player in Atlanta history, and in his second game, the next day, he socked his first M.L. homer, becoming the youngest National Leaguer to go deep since Houston's Larry Dierker in 1965.

The Braves swept the Dodgers in three games in the Division Series then became the first team in history to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the NLCS, overcoming the St. Louis Cardinals. Atlanta took the final three contests by scores of 14-0, 3-1, and 15-0. By winning the first two World Series games in Yankee Stadium, the Braves appeared on their way to repeating as world champions, but saw New York capture the final four games and the title. The Braves organization was recognized by BASEBALL AMERICA as the Organization-of-the-Year for 1996, the second time since 1991.

1997- The Braves won a major league high 101 games and an unprecedented sixth straight division title, but failed to reach the World Series for the first time since 1993 when the Marlins won the NLCS, four games to two. The six consecutive first-place finishes eclipsed the old mark of five straight set by the New York Yankees (1949-53) and the Oakland A's (1971-75). In their inaugural season at Turner Field, the Braves won 12 of their first 13 home games, and retained sole possession of first place from April 14 through the remainder of the season. The Braves set a major league record for April with 19 victories, breaking the old mark of 18, set six times previously. The team clinched the N.L. East on September 22, finishing with a 9.0 game margin over Florida. Atlanta's pitching once again proved dominant, leading the majors with a 3.18 ERA and 17 shutouts. Fourth starter Denny Neagle turned in the National League's only 20-victory campaign, going 20-5 with a 2.97 ERA, while Greg Maddux (19-4, 2.20) narrowly missed the 20-win circle. John Smoltz (15-12, 3.02) led the National League with 256.0 innings pitched, and became the first pitcher in franchise history to notch at least 200 strikeouts in four seasons. Tom Glavine (14-7, 2.96 ERA) was one of four Braves starters to rank in the top 10 in the N.L. in ERA. Glavine was named the National League's Pitcher of the Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.64 ERA, while becoming the first pitcher to record two career shutouts at Colorado's Coors Field. Mark Wohlers became the first Braves pitcher to notch consecutive 30+ save seasons, while fanning 92 in 69.1 innings pitched. On offense, the Braves reached the .270 mark for the second straight year, a feat they hadn't accomplished since 1947-48. Most noteworthy were the 12 grand slams hit by the squad, setting a major league record, featuring 3 by Chipper Jones in a span of 13 contests, setting the NL record for 3 slams in the fewest team games. C. Jones posted another solid season (21-111-.295), with 20 stolen bases, and became the first Braves third baseman to drive in 100+ runs in consecutive seasons since Eddie Mathews in 1959-60. Ryan Klesko led the squad with 24 homers, followed by Javy Lopez (23), Fred McGriff (22), and C. Jones (21). Jeff Blauser added 17 homers, while batting .308. The offense exploded for 9 run-innings twice in 12 games (June 22 and July 3), after not having performed the feat since 1989. Grand slams by Ryan Klesko and Tim Lincecum on July 14 vs. the Phillies marked only the fifth occasion in franchise history that the Braves hit 2 slams in a contest. Quartet of Maddux-Neagle-Glavine-Smoltz excelled in August, not allowing more than 3 ER in any of their final 19 starts of the month. Neagle joined the 20-game winners circle for the first time in his career with a 4-0 combined shutout at San Diego September 7. Maddux ended the season with a sensational ratio of 19 wins to 20 walks, with 6 of those being intentional. Rafael Belliard made headlines when he belted his first homer in more than 10 years, a 2-run blast Sept. 26 at New York. In the post-season, Atlanta swept 3 games from Houston in the Division Series, giving the Braves a 9-1 mark in Division Series competition. Competing in a record 6th straight National League Championship Series, the Braves lost to the Marlins in 6 games losing the final 2 contests, marking the first time a team other than Atlanta represented the National League in the World Series since 1993.

Braves Best Pitching Starts

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following Braves who had gotten off to successful starts at the beginning of their seasons:

Warren Spahn	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch.
Jim Wilson	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17, so this streak was not at start of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
Pete Smith	7-0 in 1992, in 11 starts.
Tom Glavine	7-0 in 1993, in 10 starts.
Denny Neagle	7-0 in 1997, in 10 starts.
George Stone	6-0 in 1969, in 13 games with only 3 wins as a starter.
Pascual Perez	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine	5-0 in 1989, in 7 starts.
Mark Wohlers	5-0 in 1994, all in relief.
Terrell Wade	5-0 in 1996, 36 relief appearances and 8 starts.

1998 Miscellaneous Information

Don Sutton 1998 Hall of Fame Inductee

Don Sutton, who is tied for 12th with Nolan Ryan on major league baseball's all-time list with 324 wins, will be inducted into the Hall of Fame July 26.

The induction follows his election Jan. 5 by the Baseball Writers Association of America. In his fifth year of eligibility, he received 386 votes (81.6 percent) from the 473 ballots submitted. A player must be listed on 75 percent of the ballots to gain election. He fell nine votes shy in 1997.

"I consider myself very lucky," Sutton said upon his election. "This is something I've wanted ever since I can remember. I revere Cooperstown. To me, it's a sacred place. It's where the Holy Grail of baseball is."

Consistent throughout a 23-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers, California Angels, Milwaukee Brewers, Houston Astros and Oakland A's, Sutton won 20 games only once, going 21-10 in 1976, but won at least 15 games 11 times. He finished with a 324-256 record, 3.26 ERA and 3,574 strikeouts, fifth on the all-time list. He pitched 58 shutouts, 10th all-time, and totaled at least 200 innings in 20 seasons, more than anyone else in major league history. A four-time All-Star, he pitched for five pennant winners and threw five one-hitters, tying a National League record.

In January of 1997, Sutton was consumed by the condition of his daughter, Jacqueline, who had been born to his wife, Mary, four months prematurely the previous November. Whether or not he made it into the Hall of Fame was of little consequence. After months in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit of Atlanta's Piedmont Hospital, Jacqueline is doing fine.

The Atlanta Braves congratulate Don Sutton on his election to the Hall of Fame and wish baby Jackie continued good health.

Caray's call of Francisco Cabrera's pennant-winning hit driving home Sid Bream in game seven of the '92 NLCS will go down as one of the most memorable in Atlanta history. Caray was also involved in the NFL as a play-by-play announcer for the first two seasons (1990-1991) of TNT's coverage of Sunday Night football and served as play-by-play announcer for baseball on TBS' coverage of the 1990 Goodwill Games. Caray also called Atlanta Hawks basketball on TBS for the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons. Sutton is a four-time National League All-Star and one of Major League Baseball's all-time winningest pitchers. A 23-year veteran of the major leagues, Sutton is one of only 20 pitchers in major league history to win 300 games (324). He pitched for the Dodgers, Astros, Brewers, Athletics and Angels between 1966 and 1988.

Don and his wife, Mary, and their infant daughter, Jacqueline, live in Roswell, GA. Don has two other children, Daron and Staci.

Joe Simpson returns for his seventh season as a Braves' announcer after serving as an analyst for the Seattle Mariners telecasts from 1987-1991. He earned the prestigious Georgia Sportscaster of the Year for the first time in his career in 1996.

An all-American outfielder / first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson went on to play professionally for 11 seasons. In 1960, Johnson moved into the front office as Public Relations Director. He joined the broadcast team in 1962, assuming play-by-play duties in 1966 when the Johnson began his association with TBS Sports in 1973 when Braves games first appeared on the network. In 1974, Johnson was named director of broadcasting for the club. He won the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association's Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1977, 1983 and 1986, and has won three regional television Emmys. In 1989, Johnson retired from his full-time position with the Braves on TBS, but continues his association with the team as play-by-play announcer on FOX Sports South.

Other broadcast experience includes Baltimore Orioles telecasts, ACC men's basketball and Washington Bullets basketball for Home Team Sports. Bob has also done play-by-play for the Tidewater Tides, Detroit Tigers and the Richmond Braves. Bob is a six-time Virginia Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Bob and his wife, Marybeth, reside in Dunwoody, GA. They have one son, Court.

1998 International Radio Network

The Atlanta Braves International Radio Network, in its fifth season in 1998, encompasses some 44 outlets in ten countries: Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras, Panama, Venezuela, Columbia, The Netherlands Antilles and the United States. It is the furthest reaching Spanish radio network in major league baseball.

Manny Otero and Mirelys Pimentel return for their third year as the Braves' Spanish broadcast team.

Otero, a captain in the U.S. Air Force from 1964 until 1969, first entered the media profession with Premier Maldonnado Advertising Agency in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He moved on to become sports director and production manager at WAPA-TV Channel 4 in San Juan, where he was responsible for the sports segment of two daily newscasts and the play-by-play of the station's contracted sports events.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a Major League Year: A full year of service in the Major Leagues constitutes 172 days.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because: 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceeding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Disabled Lists:

15-DAY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

MLB Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for major league service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The final game took place on October 24, 1996 when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in the fifth game of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' down the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' with a capacity of 52,769.

A Look at Turner Field

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997...Braves defeat Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August of 1997 and the site is being converted into a parking lot in time for the 1998 season.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Street on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75-85 and I-20.

Seating – Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the club level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper, level does not go all around the park, providing the fans there with a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – A 29-foot-by-38-foot Panasonic video screen and a 32-foot-by-64-foot matrix board. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the total seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.
